

Clinical Nurse Specialist

Reporting to: Clinical Nurse Manager	Direct Reports: None
Department: Clinical	Location: Field Based- Covering Yorkshire
Contract Type: Permanent

Company Information

Clinisupplies is a leading UK-based manufacturer and supplier of medical appliances specialising in continence products for managing acute and chronic condition. The company also offers a portfolio of bandages and garments for the treatment of wounds and chronic skin conditions. Employing over 500 people in the UK, China and India, Clinisupplies supplies its products to the NHS and delivers direct to patients' homes through Clinidirect, its dispensing appliance contractor.

Clinisupplies is focused on developing products which are simple and discreet to use. Its product development team works with clinicians and patients to develop a strong product pipeline to be manufactured at its CE, ISO, US FDA approved facilities.

Role summary

In conjunction with the Clinical Nurse Manager, the Clinical Nurse Specialist contributes to delivering a high standard of care to individuals with complex bladder and bowel continence needs in a variety of settings. The Clinical Nurse Specialist will be responsible for managing a caseload of individuals with complex bladder and bowel continence needs.

This is a field-based role covering Yorkshire.

The Clinical Nurse Specialist will also facilitate educational programmes as required and will promote Clinisupplies home delivery service for individuals requiring specialist products for the management of their bladder / bowel symptoms.

Key Responsibilities

The following provides an indication of the key responsibilities involved in this role but is not intended to be an exhaustive list of all the duties that you may be required to do.

- To ensure the individual is offered a holistic assessment and their individual needs are managed appropriately.
- To manage a caseload of patients requiring support and management of their continence needs
- To work in collaboration to develop a caring service for individual clients in their own home or any other statutory establishment.

- To work autonomously with individuals in a variety of settings ensuring the delivery of high standards of care in the promotion of continence and management of incontinence
- Ensure that clients have access or appropriate referral to other services.
- To undertake clinical procedures, investigations or interventions competently whilst maintaining a safe, dignified and confidential environment for the client
- Assess and monitor risk in own and others practice acting on the results, thereby ensuring safe delivery of care.
- Participate in the management of all available resources to ensure an effective and efficient service, which is consistent, accessible, and relevant to client needs.
- To participate in delivering training for the development of others
- To maintain a high standard of professional competency within a framework of clinical governance
- To maintain a professional attitude at all times, in the best interest of the clients and professionals in accordance with the NMC Code of Conduct
- To maintain accurate and comprehensive clinical record keeping
- To produce reports when requested by the Clinical Nurse Manager
- To participate in clinical audit programmes to review and monitor service activity.
- To ensure quality standards which improve the clients experience and outcomes are implemented.
- Maintain personal development in order to provide a high level of specialist care and support, accordance with NMC requirements.
- Attend regular meetings with Clinical Nurse Manager and participate in personal development review as requested.
- Attend meetings as required at Clinisupplies head office in Watford.
- Promote the use of Clinisupplies home delivery service for patients requiring specialist products appropriate to individual need.
- Actively seek potential business opportunities on behalf of the organisation

Experienced Required

- Passion to win; a self-starter and has a sense of urgency to achieve results.
- Competitive and works hard to exceed sales targets.
- Ability to self-motivate when needed.
- Ability to demonstrate sound knowledge and application of NMC Code of Conduct and Scope of Professional Practice
- Be able to undertake a specialist holistic assessment, diagnose, plan and evaluate care.
- Awareness of the needs of ethnic minority clients/carers
- Demonstrate ability to manage caseload/workload and associated resources.
- Be able to work autonomously.
- Demonstrate leadership skills.
- Demonstrate a high level of clinical competence in relation to the specialism.
- Be able to provide specialist advice and support healthcare professionals, patients, and their carers.
- Ability to demonstrate written skills that are relevant, accurate and concise.
- Ability to demonstrate verbal skills.

- Ability to demonstrate individual responsibility in respect of Health and Safety
- Registered Nurse
- Post registration experience within a urology / continence environment
- First level degree in a health-related subject or working towards
- ENB 998 or equivalent with demonstrable experience of teaching or delivering training.
- ENB 978 or equivalent
- Evidence of multi-disciplinary working
- Evidence of working with adults who have complex continence issues.

Desirable

- Demonstrable experience within a community setting
- Experience of working in a commercial healthcare environment
- Demonstrate an understanding of audit processes.
- Have knowledge of home delivery services for specialist products / DAC
- V100/150 Community Prescribing

Clinisupplies is dedicated to the continuous development of our employees and offer excellent career prospects for the strong candidate. We offer competitive terms and conditions.

Clinisupplies Limited is an equal opportunities employer and positively encourages applications from suitably qualified and eligible candidates regardless of sex, race, disability, age, sexual orientation, gender reassignment, religion or belief, marital status, or pregnancy and maternity.

How to apply

If you are interested in this position, please forward your CV to recruitment@clinisupplies.co.uk.

Please note that in addition to the interviews there will be assessments as part of our recruitment and selection process.

NO AGENCIES